

You intended to harm me, but God intended it for good. Genesis 50:20

8

KEY THEME:

To know that sometimes God chooses people whom others may not choose

THIS WEEK AT HOME:

- Read Genesis 29
- Discuss how God showed favor on Leah even though she was not desirable in Jacob's eyes.
- Discuss the role of Leah would play in God's fulfillment of his promise of a Savior.
- Pray giving thanks we can find rest, peace and Love in God's love even when people may fail us.
- Look in the Bible for other examples where God chose the unlikely candidates for His purposes and glory.

You intended to harm me, but God intended it for good. Genesis 50:20

8

KEY THEME:

To know that sometimes God chooses people whom others may not choose

THIS WEEK AT HOME:

- Read Genesis 29
- Discuss how God showed favor on Leah even though she was not desirable in Jacob's eyes.
- Discuss the role of Leah would play in God's fulfillment of his promise of a Savior.
- Pray giving thanks we can find rest, peace and Love in God's love even when people may fail us.
- Look in the Bible for other examples where God chose the unlikely candidates for His purposes and glory.

You intended to harm me, but God intended it for good. Genesis 50:20

8

KEY THEME:

To know that sometimes God chooses people whom others may not choose

THIS WEEK AT HOME:

- Read Genesis 29
- Discuss how God showed favor on Leah even though she was not desirable in Jacob's eyes.
- Discuss the role of Leah would play in God's fulfillment of his promise of a Savior.
- Pray giving thanks we can find rest, peace and Love in God's love even when people may fail us.
- Look in the Bible for other examples where God chose the unlikely candidates for His purposes and glory.

You intended to harm me, but God intended it for good. Genesis 50:20

8

KEY THEME:

To know that sometimes God chooses people whom others may not choose

THIS WEEK AT HOME:

- Read Genesis 29
- Discuss how God showed favor on Leah even though she was not desirable in Jacob's eyes.
- Discuss the role of Leah would play in God's fulfillment of his promise of a Savior.
- Pray giving thanks we can find rest, peace and Love in God's love even when people may fail us.
- Look in the Bible for other examples where God chose the unlikely candidates for His purposes and glory.