

Salvation comes from the LORD.
Jonah 2:9

21

KEY THEME:

To teach that the return of the exiles was both evidence that God was still working toward fulfilling His promise to bring salvation, but that it wasn't through the rebuilding of physical Jerusalem

THIS WEEK AT HOME:

- Consider how Ezra, Nehemiah, and Malachi ministered to the exiles who had returned to the Promised Land after being captive to the Babylonians.
- Discuss how Jerusalem never returned to its former glory (particularly during the reign of David), but God continued to be merciful toward Israel for the sake of His promises.

21

KEY THEME:

To teach that the return of the exiles was both evidence that God was still working toward fulfilling His promise to bring salvation, but that it wasn't through the rebuilding of physical Jerusalem

THIS WEEK AT HOME:

- Consider how Ezra, Nehemiah, and Malachi ministered to the exiles who had returned to the Promised Land after being captive to the Babylonians.
- Discuss how Jerusalem never returned to its former glory (particularly during the reign of David), but God continued to be merciful toward Israel for the sake of His promises.

Salvation comes from the LORD.
Jonah 2:9

21

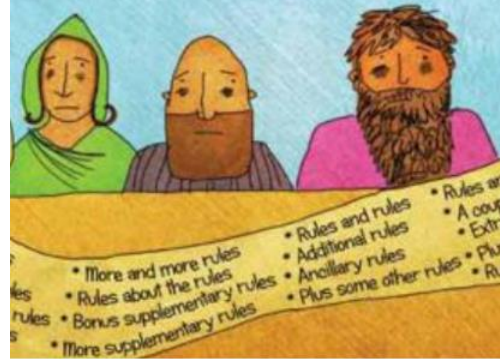

KEY THEME:

To teach that the return of the exiles was both evidence that God was still working toward fulfilling His promise to bring salvation, but that it wasn't through the rebuilding of physical Jerusalem

THIS WEEK AT HOME:

- Consider how Ezra, Nehemiah, and Malachi ministered to the exiles who had returned to the Promised Land after being captive to the Babylonians.
- Discuss how Jerusalem never returned to its former glory (particularly during the reign of David), but God continued to be merciful toward Israel for the sake of His promises.

Salvation comes from the LORD.
Jonah 2:9

21

KEY THEME:

To teach that the return of the exiles was both evidence that God was still working toward fulfilling His promise to bring salvation, but that it wasn't through the rebuilding of physical Jerusalem

THIS WEEK AT HOME:

- Consider how Ezra, Nehemiah, and Malachi ministered to the exiles who had returned to the Promised Land after being captive to the Babylonians.
- Discuss how Jerusalem never returned to its former glory (particularly during the reign of David), but God continued to be merciful toward Israel for the sake of His promises.