

Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord. (Luke 2:11)

23

KEY THEME:

To teach that the good news, for everyone everywhere, is that Jesus, the Rescuer, the Light of the World, is came into the world to do a work no one else could do.

THIS WEEK AT HOME:

- Discuss how the first people to hear the good news about the birth of God's Son were shepherds, who were very lowly socially.
- God sent His Son to be the rescuer of spiritually lowly people – sinners!
- Pray giving thanks that God, that He loves so much that He sets his love on people who do not deserve it.

Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord. (Luke 2:11)

23

KEY THEME:

To teach that the good news, for everyone everywhere, is that Jesus, the Rescuer, the Light of the World, is came into the world to do a work no one else could do.

THIS WEEK AT HOME:

- Discuss how the first people to hear the good news about the birth of God's Son were shepherds, who were very lowly socially.
- God sent His Son to be the rescuer of spiritually lowly people – sinners!
- Pray giving thanks that God, that He loves so much that He sets his love on people who do not deserve it.

Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord. (Luke 2:11)

23

KEY THEME:

To teach that the good news, for everyone everywhere, is that Jesus, the Rescuer, the Light of the World, is came into the world to do a work no one else could do.

THIS WEEK AT HOME:

- Discuss how the first people to hear the good news about the birth of God's Son were shepherds, who were very lowly socially.
- God sent His Son to be the rescuer of spiritually lowly people – sinners!
- Pray giving thanks that God, that He loves so much that He sets his love on people who do not deserve it.

Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord. (Luke 2:11)

23

KEY THEME:

To teach that the good news, for everyone everywhere, is that Jesus, the Rescuer, the Light of the World, is came into the world to do a work no one else could do.

THIS WEEK AT HOME:

- Discuss how the first people to hear the good news about the birth of God's Son were shepherds, who were very lowly socially.
- God sent His Son to be the rescuer of spiritually lowly people – sinners!
- Pray giving thanks that God, that He loves so much that He sets his love on people who do not deserve it.