

For this Son of mine was
dead and is alive again.

Luke 15:24

35

KEY THEME:

To teach that everyone who sins is
like the rebellious son who ran away
from the father who loved him.

THIS WEEK AT HOME:

- Read Luke 15:11-32.
- Consider how the son rebelled against his own father, and that when he came to his senses he knew he was unworthy to be a son, but figured slave was better than nothing.
- Discuss how the Father received his lost son.
- Pray, giving thanks for God's inexplicable love exhibiting Grace through Jesus to receive rebellious children back into His home.

For this Son of mine was dead and is alive again.

Luke 15:24

35

KEY THEME:

To teach that everyone who sins is
like the rebellious son who ran away
from the father who loved him.

THIS WEEK AT HOME:

- Read Luke 15:11-32.
- Consider how the son rebelled against his own father, and that when he came to his senses he knew he was unworthy to be a son, but figured slave was better than nothing.
- Discuss how the Father received his lost son.
- Pray, giving thanks for God's inexplicable love exhibiting Grace through Jesus to receive rebellious children back into His home.

For this Son of mine was dead and is alive again.

Luke 15:24

35

KEY THEME:

To teach that everyone who sins is
like the rebellious son who ran away
from the father who loved him.

THIS WEEK AT HOME:

- Read Luke 15:11-32.
- Consider how the son rebelled against his own father, and that when he came to his senses he knew he was unworthy to be a son, but figured slave was better than nothing.
- Discuss how the Father received his lost son.
- Pray, giving thanks for God's inexplicable love exhibiting Grace through Jesus to receive rebellious children back into His home.

For this Son of mine was dead and is alive again.

Luke 15:24

35

KEY THEME:

To teach that everyone who sins is
like the rebellious son who ran away
from the father who loved him.

THIS WEEK AT HOME:

- Read Luke 15:11-32.
- Consider how the son rebelled against his own father, and that when he came to his senses he knew he was unworthy to be a son, but figured slave was better than nothing.
- Discuss how the Father received his lost son.
- Pray, giving thanks for God's inexplicable love exhibiting Grace through Jesus to receive rebellious children back into His home.