

“Yet not as I will, but as you will.”
Matt. 26:39

38 KEY THEME:
To teach that Jesus’ highest priority was to live in accord with the Father’s Will

THIS WEEK AT HOME:

- Read: Mt. 26:36-56
- Consider that Jesus knew what was going to happen, and being fully human, he knew the physical pain that would happen, but being God, he knew the – much worse - Spiritual pain that would happen being separated from the Father.
- Discuss what it means to make God’s will the top priority in your household.
- Pray giving thanks that Jesus, by His Spirit, gives Christians the ability and JOY to live in God’s will.

“Yet not as I will, but as you will.”
Matt. 26:39

38 KEY THEME:
To teach that Jesus’ highest priority was to live in accord with the Father’s Will

THIS WEEK AT HOME:

- Read: Mt. 26:36-56
- Consider that Jesus knew what was going to happen, and being fully human, he knew the physical pain that would happen, but being God, he knew the – much worse - Spiritual pain that would happen being separated from the Father.
- Discuss what it means to make God’s will the top priority in your household.
- Pray giving thanks that Jesus, by His Spirit, gives Christians the ability and JOY to live in God’s will.

“Yet not as I will, but as you will.”
Matt. 26:39

38 KEY THEME:
To teach that Jesus’ highest priority was to live in accord with the Father’s Will

THIS WEEK AT HOME:

- Read: Mt. 26:36-56
- Consider that Jesus knew what was going to happen, and being fully human, he knew the physical pain that would happen, but being God, he knew the – much worse - Spiritual pain that would happen being separated from the Father.
- Discuss what it means to make God’s will the top priority in your household.
- Pray giving thanks that Jesus, by His Spirit, gives Christians the ability and JOY to live in God’s will.

“Yet not as I will, but as you will.”
Matt. 26:39

38 KEY THEME:
To teach that Jesus’ highest priority was to live in accord with the Father’s Will

THIS WEEK AT HOME:

- Read: Mt. 26:36-56
- Consider that Jesus knew what was going to happen, and being fully human, he knew the physical pain that would happen, but being God, he knew the – much worse - Spiritual pain that would happen being separated from the Father.
- Discuss what it means to make God’s will the top priority in your household.
- Pray giving thanks that Jesus, by His Spirit, gives Christians the ability and JOY to live in God’s will.